

Marshall Chosen For JRB

Walter Hoefflin, general chairman of the first Junior Rose Bowl football game in 1946 and current president of the Tournament of Roses Association, will be Grand Marshall of this year's Junior Rose Bowl Parade.

It was Hoefflin, along with the late Myron Thomas, then president of the Pasadena Junior Chamber of Commerce, who had the original idea of creating an intersectional junior college football game to be played in the Rose Bowl.

Pus Halbriter of the Signal Youth Foundation and Bill Schroeder of the Helms Athletic Foundation originated the 1946 game between Compton and Kilgore, Texas.

This year's Junior Rose Bowl, between Long Beach and Cameron, Oklahoma, is the 19th game in the series.

Twenty-four bands will participate in the Junior Rose Bowl Parade, 17 of them being junior college groups in competition for the state band championship. The other bands will be from Pasadena High, Muir High and Pasadena's five junior high schools.

New Horizons Recreation Center, Second Unit Open

Builder-developer Ray Watt hosted more than 600 residents and guests for a reception and poolside dinner last week to mark the preview opening of the Recreation Center and the second unit of New Horizons in Torrance.

In addition to the new garden homes in the adult community, new recreation facilities have been opened. Wayne "Doc" Anderson, long time Dodger trainer and newly named director of physical fitness at New Horizons, was introduced to residents of the development.

Dodger pitcher and Cy Young award winner Don

Drysdale was a special guest at the opening. Anderson said Drysdale will work with him during the off season, using equipment in the new gymnasium to keep in shape.

The new Recreation Center includes a complete gymnasium, physical fitness room, separate sauna baths with showers and locker rooms for men and women, a wood-working shop, sewing room, arts and crafts room, and new billiards room. Also included are adjacent tennis courts and a second swimming pool.

The second unit of the New Horizons development includes 333 Gold Medallion garden homes. When the entire development is completed, it will be home for 600 families, Watt said. The development also includes a 9-hole golf course and a community center.

Total cost of the development is $18 million, Watt said. The community is limited to families where one spouse is at least 35 years old. Children under 18 may not become permanent residents.

New Horizons is located on Sepulveda Boulevard between Hawthorne Avenue and Crenshaw Boulevard. The sales office may be telephoned at 325-6161.

Motley Selected Top Metro Gridder

Halfback Harv Motley, who sparked Junior Rose Bowl-bound Long Beach to an unbeaten regular season and No. 1 national ranking among junior college football teams, has been named Metropolitan Conference "player of the year" by vote of the conference coaches.

To earn a berth on the first team, Santa Monica's Reilly rewrote the Corsair record book to become the greatest passer in the schools history.

He finished the season with 173 completions in 301 attempts for 2207 yards and 18 touchdowns. His completion percentage was 54.1.

Motley scored 16 touchdowns to lead all Metropolitan Conference scorers with 96 points. He carried the ball 139 times for 1064 yards and an average of 7.65 per carry.

El Camino was not represented on the offensive platoon, but had Lineman Rick Cooper, Linebacker Larry Petrill, and defensive Back Pat Pagett on the defensive unit.

Santa Anita Announces Calendar

The nation's champion horses will be featured in some of America's most notable classic races during Santa Anita's richest winter season opening Saturday, Dec. 26, and continuing for 55 racing days through Thursday, March 11.

The 28th meeting at the popular Arcadia, Calif., race track, will feature 31 stakes for $1,250,000 as part of a slogan for an estimated $4,000,000 in total purses.

Four $100,000 racing classics will be the racing highlights of the eventful season, with much glamour this year attached to the inauguration of the new $125,000 invitational San Juan Capistrano marathon handicap.

The 27th running of the historic $145,000-guaranteed Santa Anita Handicap will be presented on Saturday, Feb. 27, with the $100,000-added Charles H. Strub Stakes for 4-year-olds on Saturday, Jan. 30, and the exciting Santa Anita Derby for 3-year-olds on Saturday, March 6.

The opening-day program on Dec. 26, the day after Christmas, will provide a stakes double-header consisting of the $50,000-added California Breeders' Champion Stakes for 2-year-olds foaled in California, along with the traditional curtain-raiser sprint for older horses, the $20,000-added Palos Verdes Handicap.

There will be nine races daily, with the feature race to be the eighth race on every program. There will be racing five days a week, with no racing Sundays or Mondays, except that there will be racing on the holiday Monday, Feb. 22 (no racing on Tuesday, Feb. 23) and on Monday, Mar. 8.

Time for the first race on every Saturday of the meeting will be 12:30 p.m. On other racing days during De-

BAKERSFIELD, FULLERTON VIE SATURDAY

A full house is expected this Saturday night when Bakersfield tests tough Fullerton in the annual Potato Bowl at Bakersfield.

Bakersfield finished second in the Metropolitan Conference and compiled an 8-1 season record. Fullerton, Eastern Conference champion, goes into the battle with a 7-2 mark.

Meanwhile, Long Beach continues practice this week for its Dec. 12 Junior Rose Bowl date with Cameron of Oklahoma.

Outside of football, Cerritos will be a top contender in the state junior college water polo tournament this Friday and Saturday at Visalia.

Long Beach Leads in 'Iron Man' Race

In the coveted bid for the Metropolitan Conference "Iron Man" standings, Long Beach leads with 25 points following the completions of three sports. El Camino has 13 points.

The standings are: Long Beach, 25; Cerritos, 21; Bakersfield and El Camino, 13; East Los Angeles, 10; Valley College, 6½; Santa Monica, 4½.
